

AMERICANS IN PEKING MASSACRED

MINISTER CONGER AMONG THE SLAIN.

Special to The Evening World.

WASHINGTON, JUNE 21.—The White House has the news that all the foreigners in Peking have been massacred. The American Minister is undoubtedly dead and probably all the Americans in Peking. The ships of the United Powers are now bombarding Tientsin.

CONVENTION IS OVER.

(Special to The Evening World.)

CONVENTION HALL,
PHILADELPHIA, June 21.

It is all over! McKinley and Roosevelt have been nominated, as The Evening World predicted, on the Republican national ticket, a gold and imperialistic platform has been adopted, and the Convention, having completed its work, has adjourned.

McKinley was placed in nomination by Senator Foraker in a brilliant speech, and after seconding speeches by Gov. Roosevelt, Thurston, of Nebraska; John D. Yerkes, of Kentucky; George Knight, of California, and Gov. Mount, of Indiana, the roll of States was called. The vote was unanimous and the renomination of Ohio's son was made by acclamation.

At once the business of selecting McKinley's running mate was begun. There was no doubt who that would be. Lafe Young withdrew the name of Dooliver and offered that of Theodore Roosevelt amid cheers.

Roosevelt was the unanimous choice—his own vote excepted—for Vice-President.

Thus the Republican Convention of 1900 has declared for gold, imperialism and McKinley, and the Republican party will fight the campaign on those lines.

Hanna was chosen as the Chairman of the National Committee and will manage the campaign. The convention adjourned at 2.14 this afternoon.

HANNA IS CHAIRMAN.

PHILADELPHIA, June 21.—The National Committee met after the convention and elected Hanna Chairman. Col. Dick, of Ohio, was elected temporary Secretary.

Chairman Hanna was authorized to select from the members of the National Committee an Executive Campaign Committee, and the committee then adjourned, subject to the call of the chairman.

Chairman Hanna left very soon after for Mr. Grison's Haverford home, saying that he would not be in Philadelphia until tomorrow afternoon.

The headquarters of the National Committee will be established at Chicago and New York, as in the campaign of 1896.

Announced His Intention to Leave Philadelphia on 5 O'Clock Train.

(Special to The Evening World.)
PHILADELPHIA, June 21.—Gov. Roosevelt will leave for New York at 5 o'clock this afternoon.

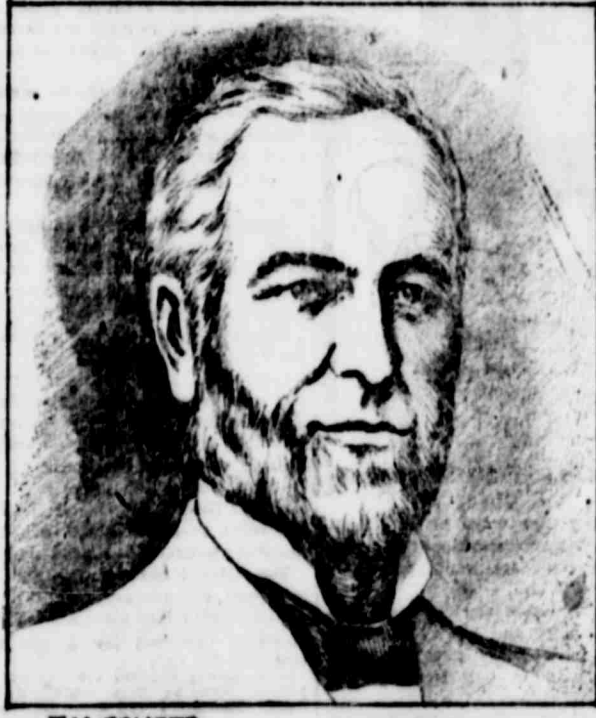

Mrs. Roosevelt will accompany him. Senator Depew will probably be of the party.

BLUE JACKETS AT WOO-SUNG
Troops landed to protect the Telegraph Station Ten Miles from Shanghai.

SHANGHAI, June 21.—Bluejackets have been landed at Woo-sung to protect the telegraph station.

Woo-sung is a small maritime town of China at the mouth of the Woo-sung River and ten miles north of Shanghai. It was strongly fortified by the Chinese, but was taken by the British in 1862.

ROOSEVELT'S 925 VOTES.

Rough Rider Gets All the Votes Save One—His Own—for Vice-President—Convention Adjourns at 2.14, After Winding Up Its Business.

CONVENTION HALL, PHILADELPHIA, June 21.—After Mr. McKinley had been nominated for President, Chairman Lodge rapped the noisy convention to order and announced that the call of States would proceed for nominations for the Vice-Presidency.

As the name of Alabama was called on the roll of States the announcement was made by the chairman of the delegation that Alabama would yield to Iowa to present a candidate.

Chairman Lodge then recognized Col. Lafe Young, one of the Iowa delegates-at-large, who rose and withdrawing the name of Dooliver placed that of Roosevelt before the convention as Vice-President on the Republican ticket.

Col. Young was in Cuba at the time Roosevelt led his gallant Rough Riders up San Juan Hill, and his reference to the Governor's campaign was eloquent and touching.

ROUSED BY A NAME.
The demonstration which followed the announcement by Col. Young of Gov. Roosevelt as the candidate of the young men of the country, who represented the Governor's campaign was eloquent and touching.

HOW M'KINLEY WAS CHOSEN.

Named by Acclamation by the Convention—Brilliant Speeches by Foraker and Roosevelt.

CONVENTION HALL, PHILADELPHIA, June 21.—Chairman Lodge called the convention to order at 10.35 o'clock this morning.

This was the great day of the Republican Convention, and long before 11 o'clock the hall was surrounded by an immense army of people, who besieged all the doors and entrances, clamoring for admission.

When the doors were opened they surged in like a flood, submerging the vast hall.

It was much warmer today. The sun blazed down through the spaces in the roof and the heat was oppressive.

Three minutes before ten the Kansas delegation, headed by Col. Burton, with bright silk sunflowers pinned to their lapels, aroused the first enthusiasm as they marched down the main aisle bearing a white banner inscribed in big black letters with the words:

"KANSAS IS FOR ROOSEVELT."

As the delegates deputed into the pit the utmost good nature was manifested. The contest was over. It was a jubilee and not a contest, which the day was to witness. Gov. Roosevelt entered at exactly 10 o'clock.

He was surrounded by the delegates when he reached the pit and showered with congratulations. He made no protestation of dissent, but smilingly repeated his thanks. One gray-haired delegate put his arms around the Governor and whispered in his ear.

ALL FOR ROOSEVELT.
All States were represented in the outburst, Kansas, the indomitable Roosevelt pioneer, leading the demonstration. A few minutes later another outburst greeted the entrance of Senator Hanna. His progress was impeded all the way down the aisle by delegates who insisted upon shaking his hand.

He stopped a moment to chat with Senator Davis, and when he reached the standard of the New York delegation where Roosevelt was holding a reception he pushed through the throng and greeted the Rough Rider warmly, even affectionately. With his hand upon Roosevelt's shoulder he whispered in his ear. For two minutes they remained thus in close communication.

Depew created a stir a little later, but it was Matthew S. Quay who aroused the shouts of the local crowd.

LODGE CONFERS.
Henry Cabot Lodge, the permanent chairman, reached the stage at 10.15, and there was a conference of leaders in full view of the vast audience. Joe Manly, Col. Dick, looking more like a poet than a soldier; Mark Hanna, Senator Chandler, Julius Caesar Burrows, Mayor Asbridge, Charles Emory Smith, John R. Lynch, the colored ex-Congressman from Mississippi, and a score of others were busy perfecting the final plan for the day.

The big band from Canton, O., the President's home, made its way into the hall from the west side and broke out with the pealing strains of the National anthem. The whole audience rose to its feet.

Among the early arrivals in the hall was Mrs. Theodore Roosevelt. She sat in the front row on the east side of the hall immediately to the left of the first row of delegates.

MRS. ROOSEVELT THERE.
She was attired in a pink summer gown, white collar and delicate four-hand teak and black picture hat trimmed with feathers and a great bow of white. Accompanying her were Mrs. William J. Youngs, wife of the Governor's private secretary, and Fred. Mc-
